Catholic Lenten Practices
Giving up something for Lent, eating fish on Fridays and fasting from meat, alms giving and penance throughout the forty days of Lent—these are some of the practices for which Catholics are known. But why do we as Catholics do this? Because through these commitments—known as "Lenten practices" or "Lenten disciplines"—the Catholic Church calls us each year to renew our discipleship in Christ.

"Ask and it will be given to you; seek and you will find; knock and the door will be opened to you" Matthew 7:7

Specifically, each year during the liturgical season of Lent the Church asks us to pray, give alms, and fast.

Sarah Voight will be speaking before our meeting at 7 pm on March 9th. She will be sharing some highlights on the March for Life trip to Washington D. C. The regular membership meeting will follow her talk.
